WARRIORS RESUME ICE RIVALRY WITH SIR GEORGE

Loyola's Hockey Warriors will host their traditional rivals, the Sir George Williams Georgians, on Friday evening, November 22 at 8 p.m. at Loyola's Athletic Complex. The Warriors go into this game with a score to settle, the Georgians having defeated them in last year's playoff final for the right to represent the Q.U.A.A. in the National finals.

The Warriors boast a 7-1-2 overall mark thus far this season (1-1-1 in Q.U.A.A. play). In their two latest outings, they bombed the highly regarded York Yeomen by the impressive score of 10-3 but early this week were upset by the high-flying Trois Rivières Patriotes 4-1 in a game played on the Patriotes' home ice.

Coach Paul Arsenault is anxiously awaiting the return of defenseman Mike O'Doherty to bolster the blueline corps. O'Doherty's absence (shoulder separation) is hurting more and more every game. Also on the injury list are Mike Relihan and Ken Sinclair, who suffered a broken bone in his hand against Trois Rivières.

WARRIOR CAGERS CAPTURE OTTAWA TOURNEY

PREP FOR LAURIER TOURNEY THIS WEEKEND

Loyola's Basketball Warriors captured their first tournament championship in five years when they walked off with top honors at the First Annual Ottawa University Invitational this past weekend.

In defeating Mc Master (110-93), Brock (99-90) and host Ottawa (108-97), the Warriors played an exciting brand of basketball averaging over 105 points per game. Leading the way in the scoring department was Bob Brix (73 pts.), Ron Puskarich (68 pts.) and John Dore (51 pts.). Dave Kurtz did a fine job on the boards, hauling down 48 rebounds, while John Erglis played a flawless floor game. Brix and Erglis were selected to the Tournament All-Star Team and Erglis was selected as the Most Valuable Player.

This weekend the Warriors travel to Waterloo, Ontario, to take part in the strong Wilfrid Laurier Tournament. They open up on Friday against the powerful Waterloo Warriors in a game which Coach Doug Daigneault feels will be a real test.
